

The state has been well represented at novice nationals and the Pi Kappa Delta National Honorary and there will still be programs traveling to more of the upcoming national tournaments. Here is a brief list of how the area schools have placed:

Novice Nationals (University of Houston, March 6-8)

5th Place Communication Analysis- Shawna Blake, NSU

2nd Place Extemp- Tabetha Kautzman, Cameron

Semifinalist Impromptu- Elizabeth Dillow, SEOSU

3rd Place Impromptu Sales- Tabetha Kautzman, Cameron

6th Place Informative- Shawna Blake, NSU

3rd Place Persuasion- Jordan Scribner, Cameron

Semifinalist Prose- Tau-Mee Victory, NSU

Semifinalist Parliamentary Debate- Howell/Kautzman, Cameron

9th Place Parliamentary Debate Speaker- Tabetha Kautzman, Cameron

4th Place Team Sweepstakes in Division I: Cameron University

4th Place Team Sweepstakes in Division III: NSU

John Greenert, University of Oklahoma (Student)- AFA NIET All-American Team

info about that award: <http://www.mnsu.edu/spcomm/niet/allamerican.htm>

Lindsay Wakefield, University of Oklahoma (Director)- Outstanding New Forensics Coach Award info about that award:

<http://www.mnsu.edu/spcomm/niet/newcoach.htm>

2010 AFA NIET will be at the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire, hosted by Karen Morris (native of OK and East Central Alum)

2010 Interstate Oratorical Association's national contest will be at the University of Oklahoma in April 2010 (more information and details to follow). National final open to the public without admission fee.

Pi Kappa Delta National Honorary (Shreveport, LA- March 18-22)

OU, Cameron, and TCC results are available through the tournament's website at <http://www.pikappadelta.com/09natsmain.html>. All three schools had students recognized at the debate elimination and/or individual events showcase level.